

Who we help

Homeless People

At Alabaré we support hundreds of homeless people every year. We help each person with their finances, health and self-esteem, and provide a stepping-stone approach back to independent living.

Young People & Young Parents

We support vulnerable and homeless young people including those leaving the care system and young parents and their babies. We help them gain the skills and confidence to lead successful adult lives.

Homeless & Vulnerable Veterans

We provide support with health, finances, employment and opportunities for a small but significant minority of veterans who struggle in their civilian lives. Alabaré Homes for Veterans works alongside our veterans' pathway across the South West and across Wales.

Learning Disability

Our supported living homes and the activities run at our Wiltshire Development Centres ensure our adults with learning disabilities help everyone have choice and independence.

People in Mental Health Need

Riverside Sanctuary and our respite homes provide a confidential service for anyone who needs support managing their mental health and wellbeing.

Alabaré Homes and Services

Helping people who are vulnerable build bright futures, homes and minds for themselves.

Who we are

We are a charity who provide housing, support and training to people who are homeless, vulnerable or struggling with their mental wellbeing.

Each person we meet has different needs, and we work alongside them to provide the support that is right for them, enabling them to overcome their crisis or challenges and move forward to the life that they choose.

Alabaré was founded in 1991 by a Christian community out of the simple act of providing a place of shelter and safety to help one homeless man, Bob. Over the years, our charity has grown and developed way beyond those initial ambitions, but our goal remains to help people who are vulnerable build bright futures, homes and minds for themselves.

Today, we support thousands of people each year through our homes and services across the south and south-west of England and Wales. Our founding principles of care, compassion, generosity and respect have remained the guiding force of our work, ensuring all in our care have the opportunity of a fulfilling life.

“Alabaré has given me the hope and future I didn't think I would ever have. I am the happiest I have ever been. I now have independence, I am at college and I make my own decisions. I feel safe at Alabaré, the staff look out for me and they give me the support I need. I can't thank them enough.”
